Special Bonding Law.

FILLING OF VACANCIES.

Sec. 21. In all cases where vacancies shall occur, they shall be filled from the district where the vacancy occurs by nomination of the Road Bond Trustees and the confirmation of the Board of County Commissioners, and in case the said Road Bond Trustees do not, within fifteen days after the written notice of the existence of such vacancy, appoint a suitable person to fill such vacancy the Board of County Commissioners shall elect a suitable person to fill such vacancy from such district where the vacancy occurs.

CONTEST OF ELECTION.

Sec. 22. Any person dissatisfied with the announcement of the County Commissioners of the result of said election herein provided to be held, shall have the right within thirty days after such announcement is made, to test by suit for injunction, filed within thirty days after such announcement, the right of the County Commissioners of St. Lucie County to issue the bonds proposed to be issued; but no contest of such election and no question as to the validity or legality of such bonds or the sufficiency of the proceedings whereby the issuance of such bonds have been authorized shall be made or raised in any proceeding instituted more than thirty days after the making of such announcement; and the issuance of such bonds, unless enjoined by said proceedings instituted within thirty days from the making of such announcement, shall stand in all respects as valid and legal, and the bonds so issued, regardless of any irregularities in the proceedings, when signed as in this act provided, by the Chairman and the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners and delivered to the purchasers, shall constitute a valid claim and bond against the County of St. Lucie, for the payment of which both principal and interest, according to the terms of said bonds, shall stand pledged all the taxable property within St. Lucie County.

ILLEGALITY OF TRUSTEES.

Sec. 23. If in any judicial proceeding it is adjudged or decreed by a court of competent authority that the Road Bond Trustees herein provided for are not legal officers under the constitution and laws of the State of Florida, then this judgment or decree shall not affect the legality and validity of the bond issue herein provided for; and the Board of County Commissioners shall proceed under the general law to appoint the Trustees provided for in said general law, and the Board of County Commissioners shall expend the proceeds of said bonds for the purposes provided in this act as if said bonds were issued under said general law.

Sec. 24. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 25. This act shall take effect immediately upon its passage by the Legislature and approval by the Governor.

Approved June 3, 1907.
